L. M. ALEXANDER GIVES ADDITIONAL $10,000 FOR GYM

DEDICATION OF
NEW BUILDING
SET FOR NOV. 4

Gift To Be Used For Landscaping; Dr. J. F. Williams, Columbia, is Speaker

Joint announcement of an additional $10,000 gift from Lewis Miller Alexander, Port Edwards paper manufacturer and financier, to be used in laying out the grounds at the new Alexander gymnasium, and the choice of Nov. 4, as the date for formal dedication of the Alexander building, was made by President H. M. Wriston, in student convocation on Wednesday.

This $10,000 gift from Mr. Alexander, trustee of the college since 1894, who has served during much of that period as president of the board, raises the sum of his donation on this particular project to $195,000. The total cost of the gymnasium, second to none in the middle west, is estimated at $375,000, though the actual cost probably exceeds that figure.

The name of the principal speaker at the dedication, Dr. Jesse F. Williams, nationally known professor of physical education of the Teachers' college, Columbia University, was made public by the president although details of the dedication program were not released.

The work of landscaping at the gymnasium has begun under the direction of Eric Buckholz, Chicago landscape architect. A feature of the work is a continuation of the drive from John-st., into Whiting field, forming a junction with a wide sidewalk from the rear of the new building. It is estimated that this approach will cut the distance from main campus by half a mile.

Grading has been started on E. South-st., front for a wide semi-circular gravel road rimmed by a broad sidewalk, designed as the main entrance to the new building. The week's work on the grounds will also include the moving of a massive full-grown oak tree to a new position about 20 feet distant from the east wall of the gymnasium.

Blue Key Elects
Cannon President

Ross Cannon, '30, was elected president of Blue Key, national service fraternity, at a meeting held at the Theta Phi fraternity house Wednesday night. He succeeds Jerry Slavik, '30, last year's vice-president. Slavik was acting in the place of William Heerman, ex-'30, who did not return to school.

The service organization passed a resolution to offer their services to Student senate in sponsoring the 1929 Homecoming. New members to Blue Key will be chosen in a few weeks, according to past-president Slavik.

Carl Voecks, '30, was chosen secretary, to succeed Ross Cannon.

Sunset Selects Five
For Technical Staff

Selection of five students for the Sunset players auxiliary, which is concerned with the technical features of play production, was announced Wednesday by Jack Willem, '31, president of Sunset.

Those elected are: Allan Arthur, William Reschke, and Carmen Negrescu, all '31, Katherine Keifer and Marie Neuns, and Charles Watkins, all '33.

Charles Passmore, '19, Chicago, spent the week end at the Beta Sigma Phi fraternity house.

Five Elected To
Phi Beta KappaSeniors Win Highest Scholastic Honor; Announcement of Election Is Made

Fall elections to Phi Beta Kappa were announced by Dr. L. A. Youtz, at convocation Wednesday, October 9:

Helen Bergmann, Milwaukee
Beatrice Siedschlag, Randolph
Harold Haas, Dale
Stanley Norton, Ludington, Mich.
Francis Nemacheck, Bessemer, Mich.

Phi Beta Kappa elections are based on high scholarship, high moral character, and the show of promise of intellectual leadership. A student to be eligible to the national honorary society must fill certain specified requirements. He must be a candidate for the B.A. degree; he must have been a resident in college for one year preceding election, and have fulfilled or be in the act of fulfilling the college graduation requirements. Not more than 12 hours of music or practical art can be offered.

Elections to the fraternity, based on three years of active work, are held three times during the college year. The first takes place as early in the fall as possible; the second, at the beginning of the second semester, and the third, sometime in the latter part of the semester, if the quota is not filled. Not more than one-half of the quota which is one-sixth of the eligible members of the senior class are elected at fall elections.

Phi Beta Kappa is the oldest national honorary society, and is a national organization of scholars, numbering at the present time some 60,000 people representing, on an average, the highest type of scholarship and leadership of any organization in the United States today.

WILLEM NAMES
STAFF MEMBERS
FOR '31 ARIELDepartment Heads and Assistants
Are Announced at Meeting Wednesday

Department heads and assistants for the 1931 Ariel staff were announced by Jack Willem, '31, editor, at a meeting of the Ariel staff Wednesday night.

The appointments which mark the beginning of intensive Ariel work are as follows: administration will be co-edited by Helen Baivier and Bertha Greenberg, both '30, who will handle the department without assistants; bibliography, Betty Hayden, '32, editor, and Mildred Hess, '33, Ruth Brandt, '32, Bernice Schmieg, '32, assistants; clubs, Stanley Norton, '30, and Lucy Reidy, '32, co-editors, with Virginia Schumacker, '32, and Alice Kumpaula, '32, assistants. Agnes Snell will handle the entire conservation division unassisted; Avis Kennicott, '32, will edit features assisted by Dorothy Howell, '33, Marion Vidal, '33, Frances Balker, '32, and Earl Miller, '32; fraternities, Jean Cannon, '31, and Maxine Frazer, '32, co-editors, with Thomas Ryan, '32, Charles Peerenboom, '32, and Elinor Chapman, all '32, assistants; humor, Daniel Hopkinson, '31, editor, Madalyn Johnson, Carmen Negrescu, Robert Eads, all '31, assistants; women's athletics, Cecelia Baldwin, '32, editor, Alice Bradford, '33, Dorothy Gough, '32, Jane Jolliffe, '31, assistants; men's athletics, Vinton Jarrett, '31, editor, Robert Duley, '33, Henry Wiegand, '30, Roy Sample, '32, assistants.

Arrangements for group photographs has been placed in the hands of Allan Miller, Carlton Roth and Tad Meyer, all '32.

The theme of the 1931 Ariel will be carried out in a French Mediaeval motif. New features have been added and renovations of the old departments are being made. The deadline for all the departments except bibliography, photography, and athletics, has been set for December 10. It is planned to issue the book immediately after the spring recess.

President Dispels False Ideas
Regarding Purpose Of Towel Fee

By Madalyn Johnson

Some of the best undergraduate minds on the campus were startled into speculation on registration day this fall by an added demand on student resources. Coed's bills bore the cryptic item: towel fee—$1.50, while men glared at their own white slips marked with the same cryptic item at twice the amount. Everyone paid—and everyone conceived a notion as to how the college would use this new fund. These conceptions, many of them commendably ingenious—most of them unsound, were blasted in student convocation on Wednesday when the true destiny of the "towel fee" fund was outlined by H. M. Wriston, college president.

It was first made clear what the "towel fee", payable each semester, is not. It is not, for example, a cleverly efficient method, designed by the business manager of the college, for raising money to hire men to scrape paint off of the windows of the new building, neither is it a means of making up a deficit in the appropriation, without the red tape of campaign

Dr. Wriston Invited To Dinner
Given For Premier MacDonald

Dr. Henry M. Wriston has received an invitation to attend the dinner given in honor of Premier Ramsay MacDonald. The dinner is to be given at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, New York city, tonight. President Wriston said that the press of local affairs necessitated forwarding his regrets.

Dr. Wriston is Wisconsin's only representative to the Council of Foreign Affairs. Premier MacDonald, in addressing the council tonight, will speak over a national radio hookup.

The membership of the Council of Foreign Relations includes such notables as Elihu Root, Charles Evans Hughes, John W. Davis, Frank Billings Kellogg, Secretary of State Stimson, General Tasker Bliss, and many others prominent in diplomatic circles. Membership to the council was extended to President Wriston in recognition of his achievements in the field of diplomatic history. The honor came shortly after he delivered the Albert Shaw lectures on American Diplomacy at Johns Hopkins University. Dr. Wriston also participated in the Institute of Politics held annually at Williamstown, Mass. President Wriston has recently published a treatise on American Diplomacy in connection with his extensive researches in the archives of the State Department.

The Council of Foreign Affairs which is feting Premier MacDonald was formed shortly after the close of the world war. Its origin is attributed to a nucleus of experts attached to the American Commission for Peace Negotiations and people in government service who had come to feel the necessity of a deeper understanding of the problems of foreign relations.

A limited number of representatives of academic life were admitted to membership in recognition for sterling and unusual contributions to the field of American Diplomacy.

The Council is non-partisan in character and expresses no group opinion. It functions in presenting opportunities for statesmen and scholars of diplomacy and foreign affairs to express mature opinions on questions of international importance and scope.

Two publications are sponsored by this group of experts: one, the annual survey of "American Foreign Relations", and a magazine "Foreign Affairs", to which the leading statesmen of Europe contribute.

The selection of Dr. Wriston as the president of Lawrence college gave Wisconsin its only representative on this illustrious group.

Fraternity Grants Chapter
To Lawrence Club

The Lawrence Classical club announces that it has been granted a chapter of Eta Sigma Phi, an inter-collegiate undergraduate classical fraternity, which originated at the University of Chicago in 1925. Northwestern and Ohio State were granted the first two additional chapters.

The main purpose of the fraternity is to sharpen interest and recognize achievement in the departmental field involved. It also offers medals to high school students for excellent work in the fourth year of a high school Latin course.

At present there are 37 chapters, located at colleges and universities chiefly in the Middle West and South. Arrangements for the definite establishment of the Lawrence chapter will be made in the near future.

Senate Will Have
Tradition of "Green"
Explained To Frosh

Discussion of the surprising lack of freshman cooperation in carrying on the tradition of wearing the green in student senate meeting Tuesday night, resulted in the appointment of Dan Hopkinson, '31, as special representative of the senate to appear before the freshman class and explain the status quo.

Last year student senate adopted a force policy to encourage wearing of the green. Opinion this year is that the policy did not encourage freshman cooperation. The plan of having a senate representative appear before the freshman class and explain that the custom is tradition here, and that it requires the cooperation of all freshmen, was suggested and adopted.

Helen Rudin, '31, vice president of the all college club, and chairman of the program committee will have Jack Willem, '31, and Harold Sperka, '30, as members of her committee, it was announced by Jerry Slavik, president.

REPORT VIKI
CAPTAIN OUT
WITH INJURYSt. Mitchell Forced Out By Leg
Injury; Hurt in Scrimmage
Wednesday

BULLETIN

Capt. Gilbert St. Mitchell will be out of the Northwestern game tomorrow, as a result of an injury received in scrimmage, Wednesday evening. Examination, yesterday, revealed that several ligaments in his left leg are torn. It was thought, at first, that he had only received a slightly sprained ankle, and that he would be in shape by Saturday.

The Lawrence leader may be back for the Beloit game here next week.

Eager to break into the column again after the decisive defeat administered last Saturday at Marquette, the Viking grid squad has been driving through a week of grueling signal practice, some work on fundamentals, and long sessions of intensive scrimmage against the yearling squad in preparation for the invasion of Northwestern college at Watertown tomorrow. Coach Rasmussen has been striving to whip the team back into fighting trim for this encounter, and the long periods of stiff practice bid fair to accomplish the desired results.

Some changes in the starting lineup seem possible, judging from the combinations which have been put on the field against the frosh. Hovde has been working in at the tackle berth rather consistently, and the brand of his performance at that post indicates that he may stick there, while Krohn is favored to start at the guard position. Vincent's injury of last Saturday will probably keep him out of competition for some time.

In the backfield, Gelbke, Vedder, and Steinberg, the latter at the quarter back position and the other two at halves, have been worked hard during the past week. Steinberg is developing into an able field general and has a knack for handling the ball and running in the open field, while Vedder's ability to plunge the line is especially good, and blocking makes him additionally valuable. Gelbke got his first chance at Marquette and made use of it to show that he still retains the speed which has given him a letter in former years. Although handicapped by lack of weight, it seems likely that he can be used to advantage.

At the fullback post Fischl still looms as the best bet, his running, kicking, and blocking making him a powerful threat. Against the frosh he has been stepping out in great style, and Lawrence fans are hoping for another performance similar to that of the Oshkosh game when he takes the field against Northwestern tomorrow. L. M. ALEXANDER

Alexander gymnasium will be a beautiful standing tribute to the man, whose name it bears—and it should be.

After making it possible for Lawrence college to build one of the finest gymnasiums in the country, by donating about one half of the total cost of the structure, he has again come forward and offered an additional ten thousand dollars, which will be used in laying out the grounds.

This latest gift to the gymnasium fund raises Mr. Alexander's total donation to $195,000, which is an enormous amount of money for any one person to give away. Any college man can realize that.

But, only a Lawrence man can realize what this gymnasium will mean to the college, to himself, and to his friends.

PEP MEETING TONIGHT

There will be a football pep meeting for the Northwestern game in the chapel tonight.

This announcement should prove satisfactory to the majority of the student body. We wanted pep meetings and now we are going to get them—every Friday night. Friday night is a better time for pep meetings than Friday morning, anyway.

It is hoped that all those who were given over to criticism last week, because of the lack of a pep meeting before the Marquette game, will be present tonight—and that includes the sports editor of the LAWRENTIAN and the writer of this editorial—as well as the other five hundred, who voiced their opinions, instead of writing them.

HIGHBROWS

A highbrow, says Steinmetz, the wizard of electricity, "is a person who is educated beyond his intelligence." The type of highbrow that Steinmetz describes is common nowadays, and Lawrence college has her share. So has every community in the world.

This sort of a person is out of touch with most everything that happens. The highbrow does not mix with people, and he does not come into contact with life as it is. In fact he seems to live in a universe of his own.

College education won't be of much value if it takes you out of contact with life, and this is what happens to the person who figures that he knows all there is to know, or who thinks that he is better than anyone else.

If you are a highbrow under the definition given by Steinmetz, change now—before it is too late.

Dr. Wriston Explains Purpose of Towel Fee

a work-out—class, intramural, or varsity—he shall punch a time clock receiving at the same time, a basket containing a sterilized gym suit including socks, and a clean towel. Together with the basket comes a padlock and key. He may take any locker not in use. Lockers, themselves, 15 inches deep, and six feet tall are large enough to accommodate a man's coonskin coat in addition to his clothes, and if carefully locked, forestall the possibility of petty thievery. The period over, the equipment received in the basket is returned to the checking clerk, together with the locker padlock, to be laundered and reissued later.

Bids from various companies on the cost of suits, towels, baskets, and laundry service were considered and the number needed, estimated as closely as possible on the basis of two suits per man per year. Suit charge per man per year was rated at $2.27, towels and laundry service at $3.10 and the cost of the stock clerk's labors at $2.00, bringing the total to $7.37 per year which the administration knocked down to a student rate of $6.00 a year, hoping to "get by" on the margin.

Inasmuch as the service to girls is less complete, the fee is lower. The $1.50 a semester includes suit service for swimming, and towel service after any sort of a gym session. The actual rate for service to girls amounts to $4.15, offered by the college to coeds at $3.00 a year.

The final argument in favor of the "towel fee" is the supposition that "money down" will be the most potent invitation possible to use, to the full, the new gymnasium, the finest in the entire middle west, made possible to us through its principal donor, L. M. Alexander, Port Edwards, Wisconsin, paper manufacturer and member of the board of trustees of the college.

Tomorrow comes the reversal of scores for the well-known Lawrence football team. Marquette had their fun and now it's our turn. It's too bad to take it out on Northwestern, but someone has to be the goat. Of course we wouldn't say that the score will be as bad as 40 to 0, but it should be a good satisfying victory.

Wonder what a freshman football man thinks about during scrimmage? They certainly can't have very pleasant thoughts. All the varsity men are growling and raring for blood, and the frosh are merely obstacles to be knocked over and trampled upon. It's all in the building of a varsity team, though.

They haven't been such unresisting obstacles this last week, however. The varsity hasn't been running through them at will by any means. They act as though they'd just as soon spill a little blood themselves, and they haven't been bashful about doing it. Looks good for future years and bad for future frosh.

Everyone is hoping for all they're worth that St. Mitchell's ankle comes around into shape by tomorrow. It would be too bad to have Northwestern miss the pleasure of meeting our captain on the field of battle. It wouldn't seem right not hearing him yell, "c'mon, c'mon" as only St. Mitchell can yell it. The team is going to "c'mon" too for the rest of the season and don't you forget it. Tomorrow it starts, and it won't stop until men from every other school in the state are filling all the available hospitals and petitioning to have football abolished.

Allow us to extend an invitation on the part of the chamber of commerce of that well known metropolis of Watertown to take a jaunt down and give the city the once-over tomorrow. It will do you good to see the boys step out as we feel sure they will step out. Cars will be furnished free of charge by the sports department to all those who have no means of transportation. Apply on the seventh floor of Main Hall between the hours of 2:00 and 2:03½ this afternoon. Drivers will be furnished for the ladies.

Big Four Freshman Material Is Promising

MORE THAN 100 YEARLINGS OUT FOR PRACTICE

Former High School Stars Work
For Positions; 35 On Lawrence Squad

By Big Four Conference Sports Service
Fresh from high school grid triumphs, more than 100 promising athletes are seeking football instruction from Big Four freshman football coaches. The freshman rule which prohibits yearlings from varsity competition has built up in the Big Four conference sports activity which occupies a very important place in the intramural sports programs of the member colleges.

Lawrence freshman football men number over 35 former high school and prep stars. John Roach, former Notre Dame star is the freshman coach. Prominent are Elias, Appleton ace; VanRoo, an all-city lineman from Washington high, Milwaukee; Masden and Moe, backfield candidates from Milwaukee Country Day School; LaGosh, a former all-city quarterback from Milwaukee; Kexel and Feind, Jefferson; Glassl and Van Wie, husky linemen from Kilbourn; Biola, Iron Mountain, Mich.; Johnson, a fullback of promise from Augusta; Atwood, Thorne, and Watkins, a trio of grid stars from Rockford, Illinois.

Beloit freshmen under the apt tutelage of Coach Fred Schildhauer are providing competition for Coach Jaggard's varsity Golden. Promising material gives Coach Jaggard hopes for abundant sophomore material in another year. Wade and Root, upperclass transfers and both former Beloit high stars, are working out regularly with the freshmen. Several Illinois high school stars are also listed among Coach Schildhauer's proteges.

Thirty-three huskies, the largest frosh squad ever gathered at Carroll, reported to new Coach R. C. Kenney. Phenomenal heavymen feature the yearling group. Bursach, Portage, center, and Theune, Sheboygan, guard, tip the scales at 256 and 257

Frosh Squad Ready For First Contest

Now that his freshman gridders are sure of competition, Coach Johnny Roach is whipping his men into shape for the initial contest. Scrimmage with the varsity squad has been the diet of the yearlings this week and they seem to be raring to go against St. Norbert's.

Although the varsity has seemed to trample their less experienced pigskin toters, the frosh have shown flashes of form and some of their number have shown to good advantage.

respectively. Colomb, former Oshkosh high star is also being used in guard position. Dillingofski and Theil, Waukesha high stars and former grid captains are also making regular appearances.

Ripon frosh coach Boise Potthoff, a former Centre college sports mentor, points with pride to a squad containing seven ex-captains of high school fame. Jensen, Kenosha high three sports captain heads the list of notable Red yearlings. Jensen is expected to take the torch of backfield leadership left by senior Martin. Other former grid captains are Peppard of Manitowoc; Patrick of Portage; Tracey, Oconto Falls; Glennie of Mindoro; Meyer of Nekeosa; and Luedtke, Ripon. All in all they favor backfield positions.

Frosh schedules from Big Four colleges are largely tentative. Beloit freshmen will play two games, opponents as yet unnamed. Carroll frosh have an ambitious card calling for games with Northwestern Military Academy, Lake Geneva, Oct. 12; Lake Forest Academy, Oct. 25; Great Lakes Naval Training station, Nov. 9; and Nashotah Mission House, Nashotah — date undecided. Ripon yearlings play an opener with St. John's Military Academy on October 12. Other games will be scheduled later.

Lawrence freshmen will oppose St. Norbert's DePere and the Oshkosh Teacher's frosh. Their largest assignment consists of providing daily opposition to Viking varsity attacks.

Greek Teams In Tennis Tourney

D.I.'s, Delta Sigs, and Phi Taus Take First Matches In Fraternity Contest

Interfraternity athletics got away to a flying start Monday with six Greek tennis teams matching tennis rackets. The Delta Sigs clashed with the Betas, the D. I.'s were opposed by the Psi Chis, and the Phi Taus mixed with the Theta Phis.

The Delta Sig pair, Babcock and Nohr, carried home the bacon after taking two close sets, 6-4 and 7-5 from Bolton and Hunt. The D. I. Psi Chi set-to was even more closely contested. The D. I.'s carried the first set to a 10-8 score, the second set went with apparent ease to the Psi Chis to the tune of 3-6, but Barnes and Negrescu staged a rally in the final set to take the decision from the Psi Chi men, Rusch and Ballard.

The biggest upset of the afternoon was the Phi Tau victory over last year's champion, the Theta Phis. With Bank's service and Hall's consistent returns, the Phi Taus managed to take straight sets, 7-5 and 6-3, from Strange and Tams of Theta Phi. At no time, however, was either set a walkaway.

Frosh Girls Have Only Complete Hockey Team

With the hockey tournament only a little more than two weeks away, the freshman class, which has 22 girls practicing regularly, is the only class to have a full team so far.

Since a new W.A.A. ruling prohibits a class from participating in a tournament without a complete team, it is possible that the freshmen may win by default. Including today's, there are 11 more practice periods before match play begins.

field against Marquette, will undoubtedly be in there, and Brussat, Barnes, and Rasmussen are expected to make their appearance as detractors to any hopes the Watertown team may have of holding the Vikes.

Miller, the big pivot man from Fennimore, has proven a hearty bulwark to the forward wall. He gave the Golden Avalanche considerable trouble last week and against Northwestern he should be a valuable man in breaking up plays and driving home the offensive attacks of the blue and white. Voeks at guard is playing the same steady game which has placed him at that position for the last two years. He can always be relied upon to uphold his share of the work.

Bickel is filling one tackle berth, and Jessup will be sharing the honors of that position in all probability. There has been some difficulty in finding the place to work this veteran in, but he is sure to be used to advantage somewhere.

To Captain St. Mitchell and Laird at the ends went the greatest pounding during last Saturday's tussle. These two lads have very little reserve help for their positions, and it would be a sad day for Lawrence if either one could not make their appearance at the sounding of the first whistle. An injury to St. Mitchell's ankle last Wednesday caused considerable worry, and at the present writing the extent of the damage had not been determined, although it was hoped to be a strain which would be healed before tomorrow.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM BEGINS 1929 SCHEDULE

Harriers Meet Oshkosh Here
Saturday; Only Three Veterans On Squad

With all of Coach A. C. Denney's Viking harriers entering, the first of the series of 1929 cross country meets will be held with the Oshkosh State Teacher's college at Whiting field Saturday afternoon.

Hopes for another championship team were dimmed considerably when Bob Roemer, the class of the last year frosh harriers, and Franz Glanzer, another good bet, unexpectedly left school. This leaves a big burden on the three remaining veterans, Captain Jesse, ex-captain Wolf and Bartsch, all of whom have been running consistently well in practice. A new comer, Arnie Sieg, shows promise of filling one of the two remaining gaps, and Coach Denney believes that Arthur, Kozelka, Mulford, Joseph, and Woodward all have chances to finish in the first five.

In view of the fact that two schools Marquette and Carrol, withdrew from competition, a successful season is not looked for unless more meets can be scheduled. If, however, the team shows up well in the first few meets, Coach Denney will take a full team to the Midwest meet which may be held at one of the Minnesota or Iowa schools.
